About the college

Devamatha College is a Self-Financing institution affiliated to Kannur University. The college was established in the year 2003, as a Catholic Christian Minority Institution managed by the Deva Matha Education Trust under the Deva Matha Forane Church, Paisakary. The College is situated on a hillock with a panoramic view as the site is encircled by the majestic mountain range which is part of the Western Ghats in the Payyavoor Panchayath, Kannur. The College opened her portals to the rural youth, especially from the middle and lower strata of society. Since her inception, more than 2800 students have passed through her portals, and her alumni has been able to leave their mark on the state, national, and global stage. Currently, the College offers 9 Undergraduate Programmes and 2 Post Graduate Programmes, and has 637 students on her rolls, and a staff strength of 52, both Faculty and Support Staff
